

A scatter plot showing the distribution of two groups: 'no response' (blue) and 'respond' (green). The x-axis represents a continuous variable, and the y-axis represents a continuous variable. The 'no response' group is clustered in the upper right, while the 'respond' group is clustered in the lower right. A horizontal line is drawn at y=0.

2
0
-2
-4
-6
-8

no response
responsd

2